Coming Nuptials.

Cards are out announcing the coming marriage of Miss Sydney Heiskell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry O. Ott, to Dr. J. Edgar Belleville, of this city. The ceremony will be performed in the Second Presbyterian church, on Tuesday, November 15.

THE Republican State Committee will pay $100 reward for the conviction of every fraudulent voter.

Novel Gymnastic Entertainment.

At Bridgeport last night, Miss L. J. Newman, of Michigan, gave a lecture and exhibition illustrating the Delarte system of gymnastics, the religion of dress, and the gospel of good health. The exhibition was a revelation to the large audience, and the Indian club swinging was marvelous.

First Presbyterian Church.

The extensive repairs on the building have been completed. A new ceiling, which is a gem of its kind, has been put in by Caldwell & Peterson, of this city. Arrangements have been made for the use of electrical lights, and handsome and comfortable chairs have been placed in the lecture room. Attractive re-opening services will be held on Sabbath morning and evening, to which the public is invited.

A Miner Badly Hurt.

John McGraw, a coal miner employed in the Boggs Run mines, at the foot of Forty-second street, South Side, met with a serious accident yesterday afternoon. He was at work in the mines when, without warning, a huge rock fell from the ceiling of the shaft, which struck McGraw in the back and knocked him down, and for a time it was thought he was fatally hurt, but he recovered enough to be helped to his home on Forty-fifth street, and as soon as possible a physician, Dr. Ford, was called, who made an examination, but could not say definitely whether the spine was badly injured or not.

THE Republican State Committee will pay $100 reward for the conviction of every fraudulent voter.

Enjoyable Ball Last Night.

The ball given last night by the South Side Fishing Club at Westwood's hall was a most enjoyable and successful affair. Mayor's orchestra furnished the music, and the affair was in charge of the following committee:

Committee of Arrangements—Thos. Bents, Joseph Dudley, George Hannan, William Knoke, John Manion, Fred Strasser.

Committee of Invitation—John Manion, J. C. Knox, Ali Campbell, William Knoke, Fred Strasser, John E. Wright, Jacob Blond, George W. Hannan, Jos. Dudley, Herman Bantz, Smith Butler, Tom Spellman, W. E. Beswick, Burr Watt, John Crogan.

Committee on Order—The entire club. Master of Ceremonies—Jos. Dudley, Thomas Bents, assistant.

THE Republican State Committee will pay $100 reward for the conviction of every fraudulent voter.

Transfers Recorded.

The following transfers of real estate were left for record at Clerk Hook's office yesterday:

October 28, 1892, by Alexander Morrison and wife to Henry Branstrop, for $1,150, a piece of land lying on the east side of South Front street, Island.

October 31, 1892, by Elizabeth Prather, wife of S. W. Prather, of Allegheny, Pa., to J. A. Hersberger, for $2,500, lot No. 7, east of the city on the National road.

November 3, 1892, by Robert Junkins and wife to John Long, for $5, lot 32 in square 33 on the east side of Eoff street, in the Buena Vista addition.

The Connecticut Company, having its principal office outside of the state, constituted and appointed George B. Caldwell its lawful attorney yesterday to transact business for the company.

If you workmen do your duty * * * you will teach men like Harry that you possess intelligence and cannot be deluded into voting for your enemies. I cannot say one good word for the Democratic party, and I am unable to understand how any workman can vote for its candidates.—T. V. Powderly, Grand Master Workmen Knights of Labor.

ABOUT PEOPLE.

Strangers in the City and Wheeling Folks Abroad.

Prof. I. C. White, of Morgantown, is in the city.

Mrs. Carolina Foulka, of Parkersburg, is visiting friends here.

Rev. G. W. Rihelddaffer has accepted a charge in the Des Moines, Iowa, conference.

Rev. Mr. Alford, of the Third Presbyterian church, is confined to his home by illness.

Mrs. S. J. Groves, of North Wabash street, has returned home from Pittsburgh, where she has spent the summer.

The death of Mrs. J. C. Hervey, announced yesterday, was a sad blow to her wide circle of friends, though she had been ill a long time.

The many friends of Officer Joe Conrad, of the Island, sympathize with him deeply in the death of his wife, which occurred Thursday night.

Hon. John A. Hutchinson, of Parkersburg, was in town a few hours yesterday afternoon, on his way to New Cumberland, where he spoke last night.

Mr. Charles R. Behler entertained Captain C. E. Stahl and a number of prominent German-Americans at the Hotel Behler after the blow-out last night.

W. A. Harrold is here arranging for the appearance of James B. Mackie in "Grimes's Cellar Door" the last half of next week, at the Grand. Mr. Mackie played Grimes in "A Bunch of Keys" for years, and knows his business.

Mr. and Mrs. Charles O. Roemer entertained their bridal party and a few invited friends in a charming manner at their home on South Main street last evening. Cards and music furnished a pleasant social diversion for the guests. At a seasonable hour refreshments were served.

Great Goodness!

We don't have one-half as much to say about our FIFTEEN DOLLAR SUITS as the facts will bear out. We'd rather understate than brag; rather leave something for your appreciation to feed upon. But how sentiment has changed within a year. Within a month men we've known first trial of Readymade Clothes. Such men are particular. Not a bit too much so to suit us. It's the particular man who stands as ready to recognize merit as he does to condemn the shortcomings. He isn't won by price or looks. He

PEERS INTO THE DARK CORNERS,

Almost counts the stitches in his careful, cautious scrutiny. We like such men. It takes an extraordinary amount of goodness to satisfy them; the common run of Readymade Clothes don't suit them, but ours do.

OURS AT FIFTEEN DO,

Even if he has been paying $25 and $30 to tailors. We've great advantage over all competition, we buy only the best Tailor-made Clothing. They're not the kind nor patterns that are gotten up for the general run of clothiers. They're better. The kind the tailors buy in dribbles. The Imported Homespun, Cheviots, Cassimeres, Worsteds. We've got the courage to buy novelties, that's why you see such a variety, such striking fashionable effects on our tables. They win their way to young men. THEY'RE FIFTEEN DOLLARS. That strikes the young man in a tender spot, too. Among the great stock of Suits in this grade it isn't possible not to be suited and fitted.

Sacks and Three and Four Button Cutaways,

$15 INSTEAD OF $20 AS ELSEWHERE.

The great crowds that throng our large establishment teach the plain and pointed truth—that no other house does, ever did or ever will sell such sterling qualities at such low prices as we quote. Our methods have won for us the confidence of the people.

MATCHLESS QUALITIES, IMMENSE VARIETY

And moderate prices are the steps up which we have climbed to success.
